

What people are saying about Buffalo Christian

Buffalo Christian is run by Mark Weber, who is a networking promoter. Here are some things said about this site, and Mark...

"Mark has put together the most comprehensive list of contacts to promote events. He is thorough and genuinely excited about the events he promotes. We have seen growth in the awareness of our concerts and the annual Kingdom Bound festival since Mark began to work on our publicity. If you are looking to promote an event in Western New York or Southern Ontario, you will get great results utilizing Mark in the promotion process."

--Donna Russo, Executive Director, Kingdom Bound Ministries, Williamsville, NY 716-633-1117

"Working with Mark is great. He has been very professional in promoting our advertising and does so in a helpful, friendly manner. He gets the word out for us with very little effort on our part and I feel it is money well spent."

--Paula Bordin, Love Joy Gospel Church, Lancaster, NY

"As a new pastor in Buffalo, BuffaloChristian.com was refreshing, informing and well done. I'll mention it on my radio show on WECK-AM 1230."

--Tim Ayers, Pastor, First Baptist Church of East Aurora, NY

"Thanks for sending out the 'shout out' regarding BuffaloChristian.com - I like it! First time that I have been on the web site and wanted to tell you - thanks for all you do. I read the article about Tim Ayers (great stuff) and thanks for all the kind comments about the Chapel in your post about Lockport. We are blessed to serve the King here in Western NY and love the great partnerships that God affords us in life. Let me know if I can do anything for you. I have added this site to my favorites!"

--David Miller, Family Pastor, The Chapel at CrossPoint, Getzville, NY

"It was great to have Mark Weber in studio on my radio program. He is 'PROMO MAN!' That was Fred Caserta's name for me for many years but I think Mark has that title now. There is no stopping him once he gets started. He does a great job. My on-air interview with him was upbeat, informative, fun and great to listen to!"

--Neil Boron, WDCX-FM talk show host, Buffalo, NY

"Mark Weber connected us with Louise, a writer from the Buffalo News. Another great connection for us was with Wesley Layton of Restoration Church. He first saw us on Mark's website; we connected and have become good compadres. He opened for our band, A Boy Named David, for our benefit concert and played a special song in the middle as well. He'll also be partnering with us on some youth events in the fall, and it has been awesome for me to get to know his ministry at his church plant. Great stuff!"

--Pastor Mike Foster, Ridgewood Bible Church, Lockport, NY

"As an advertising tool, Mark Weber's service was a definite asset to the WellAndAlive Family Festival especially as a first time event. Overall, he went over and above the call of duty by advertising the event even prior to receiving payment. As for the advertisement, the quality of what he put together was fantastic and truly captured the heart of the event. I am most certainly planning on using this service again and would recommend anyone with an event within his demographics to do so as well."

--Nicole Smith, WellAndAlive Family Festival (put on by several churches in Welland), Welland, ON Canada

"Mark Weber has been an invaluable resource for Relevant Worship. Mark truly has his finger on the pulse of what is going on in WNY and Ontario, and he is always ready with great advice which comes from an informed perspective. Through Buffalo Christian and Mark's emails we have been able to network and broaden our area of influence exponentially. In one word? Invaluable!"

--Matt Poulsen, Director, Relevant Worship Ministries Inc., Williamsville, NY 716-998-8617

"I recommend Mark's service because there's no other service like it. I used to miss out on a lot of events because I didn't receive the information. With Mark's service, every Christian event is at your fingertips; you don't have to go anywhere else to see what's happening in the Buffalo and Rochester region. Also, my ministry advertises with Mark because it's great knowing that my scheduled performances will be viewed and considered by thousands of Christians who are looking for events to attend. I give Mark's service an A+."

--Dana LeBlanc Corvino, Youth For Truth, a Christian Performing Arts Ministry, Orchard Park, NY

"Mark has done a wonderful job with speed, efficiency and accuracy to help promote our pastor's consecration to the office of bishop. We have used his services in the past for other events-- he's always professional and timely-- and we will always consider his services in the future."

--Dawn McMillan, Elim Christian Fellowship, Buffalo, NY

"Mark's emailing and web services have helped us get the word out about our large scale events. He was able to reach a large potential audience, in a visibly appealing and timely manner, that may not have gotten the news otherwise. Mark is not just a promoter of Christian events-- he is an integral part of the spirit and heart of Christian events in WNY. I encourage others to use his services and tap into his networking capabilities."

--Ilene Polley, Impact Special Events Ministry of First Trinity Lutheran Church, Tonawanda, NY

"Getting the 'Good News' out to everyone is so important. It's what we do, and Mark Weber helps us to do it even better!"

--Marie Gibson, Greater Rochester Community of Churches, Rochester, NY

"Once you book an event for your church, your next call (or email) should be to Mark Weber. As a professional concert producer for 16 years, I've worked with many publicists throughout the entire music industry. In terms of enthusiasm, professionalism, and real results, Mark ranks right at the top."

--Bruce Eaton, Clarence United Methodist Church, Clarence, NY

"Mark's emails are a great source of information, keeping me current."

--Jill Kelly, wife of Buffalo Bills' QB Jim Kelly/Hunter's Hope, Orchard Park, NY

"I am thrilled at the creative ways a driven, focused, educated and passionate individual can make a business grow in this information age! Mark has great ideas and is really going places."

--Pastor Michael Nieves, CenterPointe Community Church, Lancaster, NY

"Mark is simply an inspiration. Our Read For Life event got coverage on City TV because of his media release. His email got their attention. What a blessing!"

--Johanne Robertson, owner of Maranatha newspaper, Toronto, ON Canada

"Mark has a passion for promotion. He is a valuable resource in helping us get the word out about our annual Niagara conference and other ministry events. Mark goes the extra mile in providing quality service."

--Bob Gogel, Joshua Revolution Ministries, Niagara Falls, NY

"FYI, I almost always include Mark's listings for Erie and Niagara counties in our papers. So, in addition to his whole mailing list, that's upwards of 100,000 additional readers."

--Josh Maloni, Niagara Frontier Publications, Grand Island, NY 716-812-3229

"Visitors to the Buffalo Christian Center continue to be blessed by the information Mark passes on! I could probably find much of this information online, but it would take HOURS. I so appreciate Mark making it easy for people like me to get useful information."

--Cheryl Wagner, Buffalo Christian Center bookstore manager, Buffalo, NY 716-852-5433

"Mark showed a genuine interest in my ministry and was most supportive. We had some great coverage thanks to his connections. Would not hesitate to use his services again."

--Kelita Haverland, recording artist, Mississauga, ON 905-813-0677

"Our ministries have been phenomenally successful as a result of our connection with the great connector, Mark Weber. Since our connection, we have been exposed to thousands of wonderful people and businesses outside of our own backyard. Mark works untiringly, getting the word out for us. If Mark Weber is not doing your PR work then you simply are not doing!"

--Evangelist Anita Williams, Taking It To The Streets, Buffalo, NY
