

Genesis Festival f/NewWorldSon Sept. 10th & 11th

Southern Gospel singing trio Greater Vision, Canadian funk band NewWorldSon, and The Talley Trio will headline Genesis Festival, this September 10th and 11th at 4193 State Route 19 in Scio, New York (zip code=14880 for you mapquesters). The lively festival is presented by Genesis Bible Church and Genesis Gospel Music Outreach.

On Friday night, September 10th, seating begins at 5:15pm, with Mitchel Jon taking the stage at 6pm. Then, Greater Vision will perform at 7:30pm, followed by NewWorldSon at 9pm. NewWorldSon has toured the world with The Newsboys, and has been a mainstay at Kingdom Bound at Darien Lake the past few years.

Saturday, September 11, 2010, festivities kick off at 10am, as Mike Failla from Kingdom Bound leads worship. At 1pm there's Marc Ivey in concert, followed by Cody Shuler & Pine Mountain Railroad at 2:30p m. At 6pm, hear Calvary's Voice, followed by the world famous Talley Trio, headlining at 7:30pm.

During the festival, there will also be other concerts and activities going on, including an appearance for the youth by DUB, bringing hip-hop/R&B/Gospel flavor to the event on Saturday night, as well as the band One Step Closer. During the Genesis Festival, catch Illusions by Jeremy, and about 4pm Saturday, enjoy a chicken BBQ. If you're in the mood for fellowship, music, and food, you need to get your tickets for this family-friendly festival today.

For tickets, please call 716-474-5564 and tell them you read about this festival on Buffalo Christian. More info is at www.ggmo.org.